

23 April 2008

Corporate Newsflash

City law firm, Sprecher Grier Halberstam LLP, recently advised MySkip Corporation Limited on shareholder and corporate matters.

Corporate partner Rishi Malliwal, commented, "MySkip is a very exciting company which is launching at precisely the right time to capture the public's increasing awareness of environmental issues. It was very interesting to work with the management team to implement a sophisticated arrangement regarding ownership and investment in the company".

Gary Cope, CEO of MySkip Corporation Limited

"It was a pleasure to work with SGH. They delivered an exceptional service and we found their approach straightforward and their advice clear and concise. They very quickly grasped what we were trying to achieve and acted to help us put those arrangements in place. We feel that SGH have been and continue to be of immense value to our organisation".